Man In Dead Bride Case Jailed

"MAJOR" IN FRAUD CASE IS KNOWN IN S. A.

Man Known Here as Charles S. Scott Turned Over to U. S. Authorities

How a man, sought by federal authorities throughout California, came to Santa Ana and lived here openly, after his wife had killed herself because of the odium which attached itself to her through revelations concerning him, became known here today.

Charles S. Scott is the name under which the man in question was known in Santa Ana, according to authorities. Scott was the head of what was known as the Scott Advertising Agency here.

Scott, or "Herman Munn," or "Harry McMunn," sought for months on a charge of having obtained money by means of impersonating a federal officer, was in jail in Los Angeles today, following his arraignment before United States Commissioner Long, of the Department of Justice, Los Angeles. Scott's bond was fixed at $1000, which he was unable to supply.

Scott, whose true name government agents say is Herman Munn, was turned over to federal authorities at Anaheim yesterday, just before his preliminary examination on a charge of having given a bad check to W. E. Helling, cigar store proprietor.

Government officials held Munn on the charge that had been pending against him for months, that of having obtained $25 from D. M. Robinson while posing as a federal officer.

The suicide of Muriel Munn, nee Muriel Sennett, was the culmination of one of the most tragic romances in the history of Southern California. The marriage came after a brief courtship. Less than a month after her marriage to Munn, who posed as "Major" Harry Munn, late of the A. E. F., the young bride awoke to the realization that she was wedded to an impostor.

The discovery was more than her sensitive nature could stand. She jumped off the cliff at Portuguese bend, eight miles from San Pedro. Several days later, on December 18, last—two boys found her body floating in the surf.

Munn met the girl at the offices of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies in Los Angeles. At the outset of their acquaintance Munn gave her a card, which, federal authorities said, purported to be "Harry W. Munn," of a government investigation bureau at Washington. Munn was never connected with the government, according to federal authorities.

The three brothers of Muriel Munn hold Munn responsible for the death of their sister.

It is alleged that fingerprint information identifies Munn with a long list of crimes beginning with an alleged burglary at Fresno in 1908.

Munn was arrested in Stockton on a warrant sworn out on August 7 by George Manderschied, of Santa Ana. Munn was also held for a check alleged to have been given to George W. Peterson, of Santa Ana. He was bound over on Peterson's complaint at his preliminary examination before Justice Cox on October 8.

Second Warrant

Another warrant had been sworn out for Munn's arrest by the Anaheim cigar store dealer, to whom Scott had given an alleged bad check for $10. Just as the preliminary examination was about to be conducted in Anaheim yesterday on the latter charge, federal authorities intervened, and on their request Munn was turned over to them, with the understanding that if a conviction was not obtained on the impersonation charge, that he would be turned back to local authorities to be prosecuted on the bad check charges.

It was alleged that Munn, or Scott, was a partner here of P. R. Stock, recently sentenced to San Quentin on a bad check charge here. It was

MORGANATIC WIFE OF PRINCE REFUSES TO "SELL HER HUSBAND"

According to dispatches from Bucharest, Rumania, Mile. Zizi Lambrine, beautiful morganatic wife of Prince Carol, has refused the enormous sum of $5,000,000 which was recently offered her if she would release Prince Carol from the marriage. The offer was made, it is said, in the hopes that the Rumanian throne, would thus be finished for once and all. The insert in the picture of Mile. Lambrine is that of Prince Carol.

BANK BANDITS ELUDE POSSES

OAKLAND, Oct. 14.—An automobile commandeered by the quartet of bank bandits who robbed the bank at Alvarado and shot August May, president of the bank yesterday, was found standing in the streets here today. It had been abandoned some time during the night, police said.

As a result of the finding of the car, officials concentrated their search in Oakland and San Francisco today. They believe the bandits came into town during the night.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 14.—The quartet of bank robbers who held up the Bank of Alvarado, Alameda county, yesterday, shot August May, the bank president, and escaped with loot variously estimated at from $20,000 to $50,000, was still at large early today.

Although roads, bridges, ferries and trains were guarded throughout the night, up to early today no definite word indicating the possible whereabouts of the bandit quartet had been received at the Alameda county sheriff's office.

One man, John Sullivan, San Francisco insurance investigator, was held at the Alameda county jail today for investigation. He was taken into custody when, according to the sheriff, he admitted ownership of the automobile which the robbers used. He said he had left it standing in front of the San Francisco postoffice yesterday morning and when he returned for it in the afternoon it was gone.

SUGAR PRICE DROPS TO 14 CENTS IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Sugar prices were cut in San Francisco again today. The new retail price will be 14 cents per pound, a reduction of approximately two cents, as announced by the sugar companies.

BLOW DEALT MINERS CALL FARMERS BY STRIKE IN TREASURY

Houston Refuses to Revive War Plan to Finance Agricultural Exports

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Secretary of the treasury Houston today rejected the demands of the farmers for revival of the war finance corporation to finance exports of American farm products.

Houston also reiterated to the farmers the treasury has no money to lend to persons who may wish to hold their products for higher prices.

The war finance corporation finance proposal, Houston said, would amount to this government lending money to Germany and other nations in Central Europe to buy American farm products.

"The government is not prepared," he said, "to go into the banking business, accepting as collateral the federal, state or municipal bonds of Germany."

Houston told the farmers they must depend upon the regular agencies for money to handle their crops.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Demands for government aid in financing marketing of crops to save farmers from being ruined by falling prices will be put directly to Secretary of the Treasury Houston today by farmers in national conference here.

"We also shall insist that the secretary of the treasury assist in making public statements that prices are falling," said Charles S. Barrett, president of the national board of thirty farm organizations, who convened the conference.

The farmer officials today also planned to confer with Secretary of Agriculture Meredith.

The issuance of the warrant follows close on the heels of Duarte's grilling in Los Angeles yesterday by Joe Supelveda, special officer in Sheriff Cline's office. The questioning took place in the presence of Sheriff C. E. Jackson and County Motorcycle Officer Carr.

While Duarte did not confess to the crime, as had been predicted, the police said nevertheless they obtained from him important information which led them to investigate the possible connection of Duarte with a similar case in Santa Ana about five months ago. It was stated that the woman in this case may be able to identify Duarte positively as the man who attacked her.

While the Sheriff's office today refused to give out further details regarding the case, it became known that the local authorities are confident that identification of Duarte with the Santa Ana case will lead him to tell all they are convinced he knows about the attack on Miss Hammel.

On being questioned in Los Angeles yesterday Duarte is said to have told several conflicting stories as to his whereabouts on the night of the crime, and about the damp clothing said to have been found in his trunk. It is also said that Duarte stated he bought the new suit of clothes found in his trunk, which the police believe to have been stolen from an Anaheim store on Friday, the day after the crime was committed.

TEXAS COTTON GIN BLAZE LOSS $21,000

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Oct. 14.—The J. B. Jamieson cotton gin in North Wichita Falls was destroyed by fire early today with a loss estimated at $21,000.

Fire Chief McClure said the fire was of incendiary origin.

Mother Tosses Babe To Safety When Clothes Take Fire

Mrs. George Hansen, of East Chapman avenue, Fullerton, who was badly burned when her dress caught fire from a gas heater, was recovering today from her injuries, in the Fullerton hospital.

Mrs. Hansen was bathing her infant when her dress caught fire. It was all ablaze in a moment.

With a mother's instinct, she threw the child to safety on the bed, while she rushed from the house and attempted to extinguish the blazing garments with her bare hands.

Neighbors saw her and came to her assistance.

Her injuries were severe and painful, but not fatal. She is expected to recover shortly.

$400,000 IS REFUSED FOR STAR RACE HORSE

'NIGHT RIDERS' BURN MORE COTTON GINS

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 14.—"Night riders" throughout the southwest today renewed their campaign of terror to force cotton gin owners to suspend operation until the price of cotton goes up.

Several gins in this region were destroyed by fire early today.

RUSS VILLAGE NEW SORE SPOT OF EUROPE

WARSAW, Oct. 14.—Vilna, an ancient city 225 miles northeast of here, seems likely to become a new sore spot in Europe, more painful even than Plume.

The city is patrolled by Polish soldiers who took the place under leadership of General Zeligowski.

The Lithuanians, who wanted the town as their capital, are much incensed, and the Allies—Great Britain and France—want Zeligowski to get out so that peace may be preserved.

From an authoritative source today it was learned Poland is preparing a note to the Allies expressing regret for Zeligowski's occupation of Vilna, but saying this government cannot promise to make him get out.

The Polish army would mutiny, this note points out, if the soldiers were ordered to attack their fellow Poles in Vilna.

BOOZE TRUST LEADER CONFESSES, IS CLAIM

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Expose of an alleged whiskey trust operating in every big city between Chicago and New York and in several western cities was expected to be made before a federal grand jury here today.

Sadler, New York stock broker, said to be one of the principals in the alleged trust, has confessed, according to federal officials and will testify before the grand jury today.

Distilleries in St. Louis and Louisville were expected to be named.

CONFERENCE PLANNING TO ASSIST DISABLED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—A conference on general rehabilitation, called by the federal board for vocational education, met here today.

The conference will discuss means for training disabled persons so they will be self supporting. Representatives of state vocational boards from the eastern and central states are attending.

A western conference will be held in Salt Lake City November 4.

LAWYER, DETECTIVES FIRST WITNESSES IN L.A. MYSTERY MURDER

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—Rush M. Blodget, attorney for Frances Denton, heiress to the bulk of the estate of J. C. Denton, murdered mining man, was the first witness summoned by the county grand jury, when its probe into Denton's death was begun here today.

Other witnesses to be questioned today are Detectives Hickok and Cody.

Following the beginning of the probe today, the grand jury will take up other matters until next week, Deputy District Attorney Doran said.

Detective Hickok presented to the jury articles of clothing in which Denton's corpse was found.

Other exhibits were the gold front tooth which aided in establishing identity of the corpse, cuff links and a belt buckle found on the body.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14.—With two dozen witnesses under subpoena, the Los Angeles county grand jury was this afternoon to begin its probe of the murder of Jacob C. Denton, wealthy mining man, whose body was recently found buried in the basement of his home. One or more indictments were predicted by Deputy district attorneys.

Mrs. Richard C. Peete, former tenant in the Denton home, and central figure in the investigation, was not expected to be called by the grand jury until next week. She will probably be one of the last witnesses called, according to Chief Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran.

The name of a new witness was injected into the case yesterday when the district attorney's office revealed that Mrs. Ann Stimson, who had answered an advertisement offering the Denton home for rent, subsequent to Denton's disappearance, told of having seen the pile of loose dirt in the basement, some of which was used to cover Denton's corpse.

This dirt was placed in the basement on Denton's orders, Mrs. Stimson said Mrs. Peete had told her, according to officers.

MAN WINS PROBATION WHEN JUDGE TOUCHED BY KIDDIES

"I am giving you this probation" the furniture was sold to a second hand dealer in Los Angeles, Philip Sasmovsky, through the agency of H. Raiden, a second hand dealer in Anaheim. Raiden, it is stated, told officers that he was given $125, Raiden taking the rest. Raiden has previously alleged that he only got $20 for his commission in making the sale.

That sensational charges may develop against Raiden in connection with the case was indicated by Judge West's statement in court regarding the matter:

"If it is true that Raiden took this $125.50 as his part in the transaction, he is in reality nothing but Allen's partner in the crime. I should like to have him before me to find out more about the matter. Raiden must have known what he was doing. He had the stuff moved at night, and he never came forward with information until they traced the goods to him. I shall have the matter looked into."

The value of the furniture was stated in the complaint to be $500. Judge West has instructed that information be gathered as to the real value of the goods, in order to determine the amount Allen is to pay. He said that while $500 was probably a little high, he was sure from his knowledge of the methods of some second hand dealers that they planned to make at least 75 or 100 per cent on every transaction.

Not one stick of the furniture was ever found, it having been disposed of at once to unidentified persons by Sasmovsky.

GERMANY LOOKS TO AMERICANS FOR AID

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—It can be said, that Germany, as a whole, despite its dislike of the 14 Points, looks with more favor on a working arrangement with America than with England. In the contest between England and America for supremacy on the seas, Germany's sympathy is unquestionably with America.

The German is convinced that, despite the fact that America has not concluded peace with Germany, there is a spirit in America favoring business relations and the rebuilding of German economic life. On the other hand, Germany feels that France, who has concluded peace, is working unsparingly for economic destruction of Germany for France's own ends. This feeling has been strengthened by M. Lerdand's recent journey through the occupied Rhine territory, by evidence that Gen. Lerond in Upper Silesia was operating favorably toward the Poles, and by the fact that France was opposing German participation in the Geneva conference.

HUMAN SKULLS USED AS PLAYTHINGS

The children of the rich have expensive toys to play with. The children of the poor content themselves with rag-baby dolls, and home-made toys. But the Kia Kia children know no other toys than human skulls, which they use much the same as your little boy does his building blocks. This is an actual scene in "Shipwrecked Among Cannibals," coming to the WEST END Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday.

GOVERNORS FOR PLAYERS NAMED

The Santa Ana Community Players' association was well on the high road toward success today. Election of a governing board last night at a meeting in the music room of the high school marked the first step in the organization of the association.

More than one hundred Santa Anans, enthusiastic in the extreme for the new project, were present. Discussion of plans for the organization was attended by great interest.

Those chosen for the governing board were: Miss Estelle Nisson, president; Mrs. Robert Northcross, vice-president; Joseph Jackson, secretary; Alex. Brownridge, treasurer; Messdames E. M. Nealley and J. E. Cowen, Miss Verna Peterson, Burr Shafer, Fred Rafferty and Charles Riggs.

All those present registered their names in connection with giving assistance on various committees. It was evident that the organization will soon be in working order.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS IN GERMANY IMPROVE

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—Despite the slumping tendency in German industry at this time, it is remarkable that some important branches are showing signs of great improvement.

Connections between shipyards and coal and iron works are being made in increasing numbers. The shipyards are making feverish efforts to renew Germany's commerce fleet.

Such reconstruction is given an impetus by the recent agreements between the Hamburg-America line and the American Ship and Commerce Corporation, and between the Norddeutscher Lloyd line and the U. S. mail steamship company. Admiral Benson of the U. S. shipping board has described these agreements as strictly business deals which will help put the American shipping business on a strong footing.

Here in Germany, one regards them as affording a field for activity for the old German companies and a starting point for a quicker rebuilding of the German fleet than one could have expected under the Versailles treaty conditions.

The German realizes that the American agreement is not made out of friendship for Germany, and he feels that there is in it a clever move to assure America's standing as against English competition. And England manifestly is viewing the arrangement with the angry feelings of the "Zusatzgekommenen" (the too late arrived) and, it is possible that England will strive, perhaps successfully, to make other connections with Germany for a co-operation in the shipping line.

There appears to be another reason for the shortage of help. Automobiles are killing the population at the rate of one every 35 minutes. —Newark News.

SET CROWN LINE HEARING NOV. 4

"We will show by the State Railroad Commission's own figures that the Crown Stage Line not only is not getting a return of 29.15 per cent on its investment, as the commission claims, but is justly entitled to an increase in its rates."

This was the declaration made here today by A. B. Watson, owner of the Crown line, and Clyde Bishop, his attorney. The statement was made in connection with a notice received by Watson, directing him to appear before Examiner Hanford in the Union League building, Los Angeles, at 10 a. m., November 4, in order to show cause why the commission should not establish "just and reasonable rates."

Watson stated today that in his application for an increase in fares the course he took in listing under operating expenses $11,900, paid by him for the right to operate two lines to be added to the Crown line, was pursuant to the advice of a man who was for seven years rate expert with the Railroad Commission.

The commission in a decision denying Watson's application for an increase in fares, held him in error in listing the item of $11,900 as operating expenses. In so listing the item, Watson said, he was actuated not only by the advice given him by a man he believed in a position to know, but also by a desire to reimburse himself for the amount of the cost of the two franchises.

Watson and Bishop are determined to try to convince the commission that Watson should be allowed some means of thus reimbursing himself.

In its decision, the commission said, regarding what it termed the erroneous listing of the item in question, that it would "not allow in a rate basis of any carrier any amount of so-called operative rights other than the expense actually paid for the securing of a certificate of public convenience and necessity."

BLIND MAN IS TOO SHARP FOR PRISONER

AMERICUS, Ga., Oct. 14.—Henry Otin was carrying a chain today because he couldn't make a blind man take a newspaper clipping for a $1 bill. Otin's conviction was brought about when Ed Jenkins, blind corner of Sumpter county, unerringly rejected several slips of paper handed him in court and identified the one Otin had passed him for the dollar note.

Judge Harper assessed Otin's punishment at twelve months on the chain gang.

SAYS COLORADO TO GIVE POWER

(Special to the Register)
ORANGE, Oct. 14.—That the harnessing of the Colorado river and the conservation of its waters will play a big part in the future of Southern California was declared in an address delivered last night by Judge Phil D. Swing of El Centro, Republican nominee for congressman. Swing's address was non-political. It was delivered at a meeting of the Merchants & Manufacturers Association.

Swing declared that the amount of hydro-electric power that can be developed along the Colorado river is almost unlimited. A series of dams can and will be constructed, he forecast. "By diverting water from the Colorado a vast area of land will be opened to cultivation," said he. The proposed all-American canal will take water to a great mesa, worthless now, but with water on it it will grow great crops of cotton, deciduous fruits, alfalfa—anything that grows in the Imperial Valley.

"Electric power will be brought to Southern California. It will give the energy here to take the place of oil and gas. It will be a cheap energy, and with it this section can compete as a manufacturing section with areas in the East where there is cheap fuel. I look to see Southern California by reason of cheap power become a great manufacturing section."

Swing will complete his campaigning in Orange county this week. Tonight he will visit Santa Ana post of the American Legion, and he will then go to San Bernardino. He belongs to the El Centro post of the Legion. He will be in Anaheim Saturday night at the big G. O. P. rally there.

SEEK REDUCTION IN MAIL PLANE DEATHS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The investigation made by the Post Office Department as a result of recent accidents to J. L. monoplanes has shown that the fires which caused the loss of the machines and the death of the occupants were the result principally of a defective gasoline feed system.

This declaration is made in a statement issued by the department. Continuing: "There was also no provision for ventilating the fuselage or draining the bottom so that the leaking fuel could escape. It therefore, collected beneath the engine and was ignited either by backfiring from the motor or by flames from the insufficiently protected exhaust manifold."

"It was found that the engine ran at a very high temperature, owing to the fact that the heavy vibration caused leaks in the radiator, which quickly reduced the water supply, causing pre-ignition. Our experts have made the following recommendations, which were concurred in by experts of the Army Air Service after they had made an examination of the machines: "That a scoop be devised for carrying a carburetor intake outside the fuselage. "That gas lines be installed with flexible hose connections. "That provision be made for draining the oil and gas drippings from the bottom of the fuselage and ventilating it. "That a better quality of insulation for ignition system be installed to prevent short circuiting of the system and a discharge at various points in the engine compartment. "These recommendations are being put into effect as rapidly as possible and the machines should be ready for flying again very soon. "There is no truth in the statement attributed to Mr. Larson that the accidents to these machines were due to lack of ordinary care on the part of the Post Office Department employees. The accidents were, on the contrary, attributable to the defects pointed out above."

School Boys and Their Fathers to Be Given Dinner Tomorrow Night

No less than 250 men and boys will be given a supper at the Junior high school on North Main street tomorrow evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. The hostesses of the evening will be the members of the Parent-Teacher association of the Junior high school.

Following the dinner, addresses will be delivered by Prof. Knoff, psychology instructor at the Fullerton Junior High School, Secretary Miller of the Y. M. C. A., and City School Superintendent Cranston.

'MAJOR' IN FRAUD CASE KNOWN HERE

also alleged that he and Stock became partners while they were serving time together in San Quentin. Munn was said to have passed many other worthless checks here and to have contracted numerous debts. He disappeared about July 7 after having given the check to Helling. In connection with the charges brought by Pickering and Mander-schied, there was some doubt of obtaining a conviction, it was said, because it was shown that Munn had told both of them he did not have the money in the bank at the time, but would have soon. He was said to have post-dated the two checks. No such evidence was alleged in the Helling case, on which Munn would probably have been prosecuted had he not been handed over to the federal officers.

2 IN PARTS THEFT CASE ARE RELEASED

Grand larceny charges brought against Leon J. Masters, of San Diego, and George Boyer, of Los Angeles, were dismissed in the court of Justice Cox today, upon request of Deputy District Attorney A. P. Nelson, and charges of petty larceny filed against them instead. The defendants entered pleas of guilty to the latter charges whereupon the court gave them each suspended sentences of six months.

DUCK SEASON OPENS TOMORROW? MAY

In some unaccountable fashion, rumors began circulating here today to the effect that the duck and quail seasons would open tomorrow. These rumors, in the language of Mark Twain, are "somewhat exaggerated." The season on both duck and quail opens Saturday. The quail season closes December 31, while that on ducks closes on the last day of January.

MCCARTHY-THORP DRAW.
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 14.—Johnny McCarthy of San Francisco, and Harvey Thorp of Kansas City, fought ten rounds here to a draw last night. It was a slashing affair throughout. The draw decision was popular. Dick Morris, Kansas City lightweight, and Johnny Fiske staged a thrilling six-round draw. Dickey Dempsey knocked out "Babe" Rice of San Francisco in the second round.

LANGFORD WHIPS FARMER.
SEATTLE, Oct. 14.—Sam Langford was given the decision here last night over Frank Farmer in a four-round bout in which Farmer was hissed and hooted for bear-like hugging of the "tar baby" from bell to bell. Farmer took a nine count in the second round.

Torrington ELECTRIC VAC CLEANER

BIG BRUSH—POWERFUL SUCTION
HOW YOU CAN SAVE THE MONEY
FOR A VACUUM CLEANER

If in addition to your regular housework, you have a "cleaning woman" come in once a week to help you, a Torrington Electric Vacuum Cleaner would actually pay for itself by saving this added expense.

The Torrington, with its carpet-sweeper brush and powerful suction, will cut in half your need for outside help, and the money you would pay a maid for these one or two days each month would easily take care of the payments on a Torrington.

Let us demonstrate to you that a Torrington Cleaner means cleaner cleaning and less fatigue.

POLY IS BEATEN BY RIVERSIDERS

Riverside high school football players walked over the local high school team here yesterday by a score of 21 to 0.

In speaking of this defeat today, Coach Marvin Morrison stated that he had started the subs and second string men in the game to give them a chance to show what they could do. The first string of players were not put into the game until the fourth quarter. The scoring was all done in the first three quarters of the game.

The Santa Ana high school "skeeter weight" team was also taken into camp yesterday by a similar aggregation at Orange. This team may not be seen in action again this year, according to an announcement made today by Linn Crawford, student commissioner of finance, who said that there is not sufficient money available to furnish suits for the team or to pay expenses. The team probably will be disbanded.

The second string football men of the local high school are slated to meet the second team from Long Beach high school on the local grid tomorrow afternoon for a regular game. Both teams are fast and hard fighters, although not so heavy as the first teams. A good game is expected.

Saturday the football activities of the high school will be carried to new fields when the Santa Ana squad will travel to Los Angeles to meet the U. S. C. freshmen team. While in Los Angeles the local boys expect to see the game between Stanford and U. S. C. varsity.

PASADENANS TO VOTE ON RAILROAD BONDS

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 14.—Pasadena voters will again be called on to decide whether this city is to have a municipal railroad connecting with Los Angeles, according to indications today following the action of the council yesterday which passed an ordinance providing for a $4,500,000 bond election in November.

Sen. Capper Drafts Bill To Prevent Gambling in Grains

SMITH CENTER, Kan., Oct. 14.—"Gambling in grain futures will be prohibited if a bill drafted by Senator Arthur Capper passes the next congress.

Declaring the "grain gamblers" are double crossing both producer and consumer by running down the price until the farmer is forced to sell and then running up the cost to the buying public, Capper told an audience here he had drawn a bill "to put this den of thieves out of business."

Capper said the war had proven the country could get along without trading in grain futures. Capper said "grain gamblers have made the exchange building in Chicago the world's greatest gambling house. By comparison, Europe's suicide club at Monte Carlo is as innocent and innocuous as a church bazaar."

GETS MORE POWER

PARIS—Premier Alexandre Millerand, who has been elected president, succeeding Paul Deschanel, who resigned on account of ill health, has long been a prominent figure in French politics. Millerand, as president, will have more power than previous presidents, through new legislation.

The Piano Record is a Critical Test

To reproduce the music of a piano is one of the severest tasks you can put to a phonograph. The result is usually decidedly tinkly and weak and reminds you of the nursery and the children's one octave toy piano. That is why we advise you to insist on hearing a piano record, as well as others, before you buy.

BEST FOR SANTA ANA

It is gratifying to note that, according to a report in last evening's Register, "a number of carpenters" have expressed themselves as "not in favor of any program that would call for radical organization steps." And it is reasonable to expect—and certainly a lively hope may be entertained—that the action of the representatives of local labor unions, scheduled for next Saturday night for the purpose of "organizing an association of unions," will be in harmony with the openly and emphatically and almost unanimously expressed sentiment of this community against the "closed shop" policy for Santa Ana industrialism.

All the skilled workmen who compose the great body of the trades unions none stand higher as a class than those engaged in the building trades. Their work is constructive in a social as well as a technical sense. They are home builders socially as well as mechanically. In a town like Santa Ana they are mostly home owners. They are taxpayers, citizens, neighbors and friends of the entire community. Their interests are identical with those of all other citizens, including their employers. Indeed the journeyman carpenter, painter, plumber, plasterer and concrete worker, lather, bricklayer of today is the contracting employer of tomorrow. And in common with the great mass of citizenship of Santa Ana—including, as we firmly believe, the majority of the craftsmen themselves—the Register is firmly convinced that the "open shop" is best for all concerned.

In joining with the business and civic organizations of Santa Ana in the advocacy of the "open shop" policy, the Register makes no distinction or discrimination as between employer and employee, or between one class or kind of workmen and any other class. We are all workmen together, each necessary to the other's welfare, all a part—a necessary and co-ordinate part—of a great, growing and beautiful city. But to such extent as distinction may be made for the purpose of clarity and completeness of statement, we believe that the "closed shop" in Santa Ana would, in the last analysis, work greater harm and hardship among craftsmen and employees than it would among employers and business men and property owners.

In view of the very strong sentiment in this community against the "closed shop" principle, and especially in view of the "open shop" conditions of employment very generally prevailing here, the enforcement of a "closed shop" policy would inevitably throw many people out of employment, greatly retard building and business operations, necessitate many removals of tradesmen to other towns and the bringing into Santa Ana of other tradesmen to take their places. All of which would involve great loss of time and money to all concerned, and the severance of long-standing and mutually pleasant and profitable business and social relations—yes, even domestic relations—the breaking up of homes. Therefore, with charity for all and malice toward none, with what we believe to be the best welfare of Santa Ana as a community at heart, the Register expresses the hope and belief that the intelligence and good character of the building tradesmen of this city will save them from being misled or driven by radicals and agitators into the industrial chaos of the "closed shop."

THE U. S. SENATORSHIP AND ASIATICS

Senator Phelan has seen fit to base his campaign for re-election largely upon the Japanese question, and is speaking nightly throughout the state, practically on this question only. Whereas, in the days when the subject did not seem so popular, especially with the Democratic National party in power, he has remained painfully silent.

United States Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, in his speech in Fresno a few days ago said:

"I am a Progressive Republican and I earnestly advocate the election of Mr. Shortridge because I believe that true progress in the nation can best be secured in this way. Senator Phelan's election might mean a Democratic majority in the senate. In your state I have seen big banners for Senator Phelan bearing the plea: 'Keep California White.' We have had a Democratic national administration for seven years, and Phelan has been senator for five years, with his party in complete control of the government. Yet the only action, so far as I can see, that they have taken in connection with the Japanese question was to send members of the cabinet out here to urge the California legislature—beg its members, if you will—not to do anything."

On the other hand Mr. Shortridge, for the past twenty years, has been devoting his time and talents to the proposition of "keeping California White." He did not wait until he became a candidate for United States Senator to show where he stands on the Asiatic question. As long ago as December 6, 1901, Mr. Shortridge delivered an address on this question, which was reported in the Sacramento Bee of December 7, in which he said, in part:

"The Anti-Chinese convention which met in San Francisco on the 21st day of November, assembled to consider as grave a matter as ever engaged the thoughts of a free people. It is not too much to say that the perpetuity of the republic depends on the solution of the problem they were met to consider. We are citizens of a commonwealth which is on the fringe line of danger—a commonwealth which stands on guard and should sound the alarm. California has ever been and is a loyal state. She has proved her devotion to the Union. In the late war with Spain her sons were the first to carry the nation's flag across the high seas and lift it in honor and victory. She makes no pretensions of greater attachment to the Union than other states, but her people love the flag and all it represents, and claim for themselves and their children its fullest protection."

"California has spoken not for herself alone. She has voiced the unanimous sentiment of the Pacific states. She uttered a warning for all the states—for all the people of all the states—as has stood as the vanguard in the westward march of civilization. Her pioneer fathers and mothers founded a state which has been and is a great pillar upholding the arch of the Union. They and their children would strengthen that pillar and forever uphold that glorious arch."

Of course the anti-Japanese agitation of today is essentially a renewal or revival or continuation of the anti-Chinese agitation of twenty years ago, and Mr. Shortridge's speech at Sacramento in December, 1901, might pertinently be repeated today in behalf of "keeping California White" by the mere substitution of the name Japanese for Chinese. Continuing to quote from that speech, we find Mr. Shortridge saying:

"The controlling thought of the convention was elevated and the words of the speeches delivered strong and true. The delegates were not actuated by un-Christian hatred. Toward the Chinese people as a nation, toward the Chinese people AT HOME, California feels no enmity. This nation would do them no harm, has done them no harm. The strong voice of McKinley, the strong arms of the republic, have saved them from spoliation. We do not forget that speaking at Athens, St. Paul said: 'God hath made of one blood all nations of men'; nor do we forget that he added: 'He hath determined the bounds of their habitations.' Let the Chinese remain at home—where where God placed them, where history found them. Let them work out their own destiny, through the slow evolution of the ages. We shall not invade them nor rob them. We do not covet their possessions. It is to be hoped that our international relations may continue friendly, thus insuring commercial intercourse. But this is not a question of mere foreign commerce; it is one of self-preservation. We know this to be a goodly land which the Lord has given us and like unto His beloved people of old time shall keep it for ourselves, for our posterity, and for our Christian civilization."

Of Vital Import

Pasadena Star-News

Advanced ground in favor of child welfare was taken by Herbert C. Hoover in an address before the annual convention of the American Child Hygiene Association. Mr. Hoover advocates compulsory education and prohibition of child labor. He denounces the cruel evils by which young children enter industries which result in "the progressive degeneration of the race and tends to impair the human resources of the country on which the coming generation must rely." Mr. Hoover is of the opinion that it is "absolutely critical" that the federal government should take charge of the situation through constitutional amendment, inasmuch as "certain states are so backward in their social development that they will sacrifice their children to industrial advantage," hence "it is not only unfair to the other states, but it is poisoning the springs of the nation at their source."

This attitude of Mr. Hoover is humanely sound. If more persons of his clear vision, his forceful thinking and his great influence took up this vital problem in earnest and pressed it toward solution, it soon would be solved.

Mr. Hoover is quite right, as every thoughtful, heart-of-flesh person readily admits, in treating this question as being of the utmost importance to the preservation of the national life. The children must be saved and protected against physical and moral evil, or the nation must suffer vitally.

He Told the Truth

Indianapolis News

Those who prescribe the truth and nothing but the truth as a regular diet should consider the case of one Harold J. Meyer of St. Joseph, Mo. He advertised a book under the interesting title, "What I Know About Women." Orders poured in and he delivered the goods—a book filled from kisser to kisser with blank pages. But it is reported that Mr. Meyer is due for a session with the grand jury because the title of his book was so truthful.

Important Aspect of Downward Price Trend

Press dispatches, advertisements and statements made by local business men all agree that prices are on the decline; but thorough investigation and analysis of conditions indicate that the public may be easily led to expect too much too soon in the way of lower costs. This view of the situation is clearly presented by a recent editorial in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, which was reproduced with introductory remarks in the current number of The Forum, as follows:

EVERYBODY SEEMS TO BE INTERESTED IN DECLINING PRICES.

Among the popular cartoons of the day is that general class that might be referred to as the "Then and Now" cartoons in which conditions of a few years ago are compared to conditions as we have them today, particularly price conditions. It will be recalled that the campaign slogan at the Presidential election some years ago was "Full dinner pail." In this campaign much was said about wages, and general commodity prices, and at that time everybody—politicians in particular—seemed interested in bringing about higher wages and higher prices.

Now, the great majority of people are interested in scaling down prices, and, too, everybody seems to be interested in lowering wages—of the other fellow.

In a recent issue of the Post-Intelligencer of Seattle, Wash., there appeared an interesting and sensible editorial under the heading, "Interesting Reading," in which the editor said:

"Some of the most interesting reading for the average person in the coming year will be the advertising columns of the newspapers, for in this literature will be related the decline and fall of prices. At least this reversal appears to be on the way. The midsummer recession in business may not be more marked than is usual at this season of the year, but it is clear that the public attitude is that of anticipation of distinct reduction in prices, and this assumption is encouraged by lowering of charges for some classes of merchandise and for services."

"The public fancies that the merchant has welcomed the swift and extreme rise in prices, and has misused its opinion of the degree to retail dealers have made during the war period and since. But the fact is that the experience has not been pleasant for those who are in business with the expectation of continuing, for it has been a time of disorganization, of uncertainty, of exasperating delays in the delivery of stock, of arrogance on the part of many manufacturers, of purchasing power by customers so far beyond that of normal times that demands for stock could not be anticipated, and with a far different ascription upon the shelves than constituted the range before the war. What will come out of the process of gravitation which has begun can only be figured out by the merchant affects all."

Worth While Verses

WHITE WINGS

Your fringe is freighted with such loveliness
Could I but carry all you say
Into the realm of day,
Bearing the joy that is, into the grief that seems!

Oh, could I take into earth's wilderness
Only a murmur, only a thin sigh
Of your elusive joy breathing by
A something exquisite and mad, beyond the spell
Of the dull orbit where dull people dwell.

White wings, that bring your bliss to me,
Make me a harp to tell it ceaselessly,
And I shall ask in all the world no greater choice,
Than to be found a fitting channel for your voice.

TODAY'S TALK

By George Matthew Adams

THE WINDOWS OF YOUR MIND.

The mind is continually in a state of light or darkness. It has windows!

And each window is equipped with curtains. Some people keep these curtains drawn most of the time so that they see little of the beauty of the world. Others lift their shades only during storms and when darkness hovers about.

But the one who sees in life something that is well worth while, keeps his windows in an ever inviting mood for the sun and light.

So that in darkness, during storms and stress, such a mind may reflect and in so doing highly resolve to keep brave and calm and cool in spirit—till the clouds and rain roll past and the light streams in!

Keep the windows of your mind ever open—ready for the angels of cheer to fly in.

A well conducted business always pays dividends. So does a well ordered mind—not quarterly, but daily!

Look out of the windows of your mind. Watch the world as it passes by. Toss to it your sympathy and love. Be co-operative. There are far more good days with sun and happiness than dark ones with little "blue devils" on parade.

Why Not Join It?

From The Rotarian, Official Rotary Club Magazine.

There are many people in every town who regard a Chamber of Commerce as a loosely-knit body of self-flatterers who run around in rings trying to secure new industries for the town, and then at the annual dinner report that their efforts have been without results. Those people from a mental Missouri must be sold the Chamber of Commerce proposition.

A Chamber of Commerce is the concentration camp, the mobilization center of a city's interests and enthusiasms. A Chamber of Commerce should stand back and help every movement and 'drive' to better the city. But it should refrain from political and church divisions which would tend to break the city into parts instead of building for it whole. The Chamber must view every activity by the single rule, is this to benefit only a certain limited few, or will it benefit the city as a whole?

A Chamber of Commerce should, interested in the city's welfare and progress.

A Chamber of Commerce should hold enough social entertainments like smokers, clambakes and weekly luncheons, so that the members may become acquainted with one another, and therefore work with more good feeling and earnestness.

An enthusiastic, hard-working optimist should be chosen for an executive secretary and he should be not feel like sitting on his suit-case waiting for the first train to leave town to take him to another position in another field of endeavor.

Make your town a good town to go back to as well as to come from! You can only do it by joining the Chamber of Commerce and working for the good of your town along the lines of a well thought out program. No town should go backward; there is only one way for a town to go and that is forward. Advertise your city, help it put its best foot forward. Dwell on its advantages and not its disadvantages. The former is for the public and the latter for yourself only.

As Henry Van Dyke says, "Trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you."

And always wake up in the morning glad that you live in your town, proud of it, tickled to death that you can call it your home, where you vote, where your kids go to school, where you worship God and where the sun always shines and the clouds never gather. Talk your town, dream your town and breathe your town. Be a booster and not a booster. Join your Chamber of Commerce, put the "am" in Chamber and the "me" in Commerce, and always recall that if your town seems to be a back number, it isn't Your Town; it's Yours! That is the title of verses by William John Walker.

If you want to live in the kind of town
Like the kind of town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike;
You'll only find what you've left behind.
For there's nothing really new,
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town—
It isn't the town, it's you!

Real towns are not made by men
Lest somebody gets ahead.
When every one works and nobody shirks
You can raise a town from the dead.
And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbors can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want to see—
It isn't the town, it's you!

SHORTRIDGE ATTACKS JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

FRESNO, Oct. 14.—Criticism of the administration for the department of justice suits against the California Associated Raisin company under the Sherman Anti-Trust law, Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican nominee for United States Senator, in an address here last night branded the litigation as a "travesty on justice." Shortridge declared that it is the duty of the government to force its way not to hamper co-operative farming. He said, in part:

"It is a source of wonder to all of us, that, with billion-dollar trusts operating all over the country with great private corporations shamelessly bringing unprecedented profits from the pockets of the people, with opportunity for the government to do real service in the enforcement of the Sherman law, it should have sought this little garden spot in the heart of California and turned its mightiest guns upon a farmers' organization."

"And wondering at this, we marvel, too, at the audacity with which the department of alleged justice, under the pretext of protecting the rights of the people, boldly and openly played into the hands of the private packing interests. There was a real travesty on justice."

ALASKAN SEAL HERD SHOWS BIG INCREASE

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 14.—Sometime when you have a hundred hours or so to spare, count up to 600,000, if you want an idea of the task just finished by G. Dallas Hanna, special agent for the United States government.

Hanna, who each year takes a census of the fur seals that breed on the Pribilof Islands, has completed his annual job and is now in Seattle. His census this year is expected to show there are about 600,000 seals in the great Alaskan herd. This figure, as compared with a total of 215,738 seals in 1912, proves the manner in which government regulations are bettering sealing conditions.

Hanna, who each year takes a census of the fur seals that breed on the Pribilof Islands, has completed his annual job and is now in Seattle. His census this year is expected to show there are about 600,000 seals in the great Alaskan herd. This figure, as compared with a total of 215,738 seals in 1912, proves the manner in which government regulations are bettering sealing conditions.

Jolly Birthday Party
Lecil Slaback was enjoyably surprised yesterday when a number of his friends called at the invitation of his mother, Mrs. L. W. Slaback, to help him celebrate his eighth birthday.

Many out-door games were played during the afternoon, prizes being awarded to Etta Jackson, Arthur Stein, Oscar Patmor and Marion Nau. The honor guest was the recipient of many gifts, and good wishes were showered upon him, making him very happy indeed.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and candy were served, the hostess being assisted in her duties by Mrs. E. G. Huntington and Miss Dora Koldenberg.

Those enjoying the happy affair were Kathryn Chandler, Helen Stein, Constance Hawley, Etta Jackson, Dora Tedford, Frances McCarter, Evangeline Sumner, Edith Tedford, Arthur Stein, Lewis Vandermaast, Oscar Patmor, Marion Nau, Horace Berry, Kenneth Lamb, Alfred Forcey and George Berry.

Sixth Section to Meet
The Sixth Section Household Economics of Ebell will meet tomorrow at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. W. H. Smith, 1230 North French street, to sew for the Day Nursery. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

Southern-Style Dinner
Mrs. J. A. Turner entertained last evening with an old-fashioned southern-style dinner.

Roses appeared in the dining room, and dahlias and chrysanthemums, in the living room, giving a bright atmosphere for the occasion. The features of the delicious menu were chicken and biscuits and plum pudding with had sauce, the latter being one of the humorous topics of the "talk fest," which followed the dinner.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbank and son, Theodore; Mrs. Kate Felton, Miss Margaret Lacy and Miss Lillie Farley.

Miss Grouard Marries
Friends of Miss Ruth Grouard, daughter of Mrs. Lottie Grouard, of West Fourth street, will be surprised to learn of her marriage last Thursday in Needles, Cal., to J. L. McElory.

Miss Grouard had planned to be married at the home of her mother, but when she returned to Needles recently, after her vacation spent here, to again take up her duties as supervisor of physical training in the Needles schools, she found that Mr. Elory had a home all prepared for her, so the wedding plans were hastened.

The bride is a member of a pioneer family of this city and has many friends here, having spent most of her life here. She is a graduate of Santa Ana high school and of Los Angeles Normal, where she specialized in physical training.

Mr. McElory is a nephew of T. J. Murphy, for many years a member of the firm, Mahalan & Murphy, general merchandise dealers. He is manager of the ice plant at Needles. Mrs. McElory will continue her work in the schools.

F. A. U. Halloween Party
All members of the F. A. U. are needed at the M. W. A. hall Friday evening at the Halloween party. The fun will start with a grand march promptly at 7:30 o'clock, so put on your mask and come prepared for witches and ghosts. A good program of games and stunts has been arranged, also good music for dancing.

her talk opportunity was given to ask her questions.

The missionary instructor of the society, Mrs. R. J. Blee, spoke especially upon the conditions in Russia.

The president of the aid society, Mrs. C. H. Baird, outlined some plans for the meeting next week, when the society is to be the hostess to the Federated Aid of the Los Angeles Presbyterial.

Mrs. Ida Blee suggested some Christmas work among the lepers, and the Box Work committee was appointed to receive the gifts and forward them.

The meeting closed with the usual benediction.

RADIANTFIRE

THE hospitable cheer of the open fire charms us all, but the trouble of maintaining it only too generally cuts off our enjoyment of what was intended to be one of the greatest comforts of our home.

In the Humphrey Radiantfire we offer you the one real dependable and ever ready heater for your fireplace. It keeps your rooms as sweet and wholesome as the glowing hard wood fire.

Don't confuse the Humphrey Radiantfire with any other gas-using heater you ever saw or heard of. It operates on an entirely new principle and its results are so marvelous as to be almost magical.

MANUFACTURER'S NOTE—The Humphrey Radiantfire is absolutely and positively odorless and so pronounced is this that where this statement is doubted, we authorize agents to reassure purchasers that the price will be refunded if the slightest odor can be detected. This is due to our super-combustion burner and catalytic heating elements which become so intensely heated there are no unburnt gasses.

SAYS DROP IN PRICES INCREASES MARRIAGES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 14.—Thomas Patterson, chief deputy in the marriage license bureau of the county clerk's office, attributes an unusual increase in marriages recently here to the drop in prices of automobiles, sugar, tires and necessities.

"Guess they figure two can live as cheaply as one when prices are tumbling," said Patterson, who issued 174 licenses in September, as compared with 141 in September, 1919.

STUDENTS WILL RUN ASSEMBLY

Members of the Student Government Commission of the high school are to have charge of the high school assembly exercises, according to plans announced at the student body assembly this morning by the president of the student body, Don Hillard.

Chester Stafford, commissioner of finance, was in charge of the exercises this morning and introduced Miss Flora L. Bradford, Red Cross nurse, who spoke on the Red Cross work and the need for an increased membership. She dealt with the membership question from the angle of the Junior Red Cross.

Medals for forensics were presented by Professor Garber. Those who received these medals were: Lynn Crawford, senior, for county oratory contest; Miss Edith Knox, for first prize in county essay contest; Miss Enid Twist, in county reading contest.

Medals given by the Remington Typewriter Co. for proficiency in typing, were presented by Garber to Miss Claire Kellogg and Miss Ruth Walker.

Assistant Coach Robbins gave a short talk on school spirit to arouse interest in football and cultivate enthusiasm for school activities.

A number of new yell leaders were given an opportunity to practice on the students, but no selections for leaders were made.

SOPRANO, HARPIS, CELLIST ENGAGED

Arrangements were completed this morning for the engagement of three excellent musical artists who will open the musical association season on Tuesday evening, October 26, at the First Methodist church.

The names of the artists will be announced tomorrow evening.

"I feel confident," said C. A. Gaslin, the association president this morning, "that this opening concert will prove to be as enjoyable as any the association has sponsored. The artists, soprano, harpist, and cellist, have a very wide reputation and have been heartily recommended to me by Los Angeles and eastern professionals of high standing."

"I hope that since no single admission tickets can be sold to the association's concert that few will wait until some big, outstanding musical event is presented before getting their membership tickets, and thus lose some of the numbers. Every effort will be made to make each event worth practically the cost of the course."

AMENDMENT O. K.'D BY FULLERTON BODY

(Special to the Register)
FULLERTON, Oct. 14.—The Fullerton Board of Trade was on record today as favoring the Twelfth amendment.

Passage of a resolution to this effect came last night at a meeting of the Board, after Dean Deutsch, of the University of California, as the principal speaker of the evening, had set forth arguments in support of the amendment in question. Passage of the amendment in November would overcome the financial difficulties now experienced by the State university through operation of what is known as the Mill Tax Rate plan, Dean Deutsch said.

Approval of the amendment by the voters would mean that an adequate amount of money would be received by the University to enable it to meet the needs of the student body, now numbering more than 10,000, the speaker said.

Dean Deutsch said that unless the money which would be obtained under the plan offered in the twelfth amendment were secured by the first of January, 1921, tuition would have to be charged students in the institution. The university now has adequate accommodations for only 7500 students he said.

The Sixteenth amendment, which also deals with finances pertaining to the public schools of the state was another subject discussed. Arguments for both sides were presented but the general sentiment appeared to be opposed to the amendment, inasmuch as it would, if passed, result in taking out $50,000 more from the Fullerton district than the present school quota, $90,000, according to those against the proposed measure.

Although the matter of the trunk line sewer for Orange county cities which has been agitated recently by citizens of Fullerton was not brought up, members of local people are constantly considering the subject in personal discussions and it is expected that some definite action to further the movement will be taken soon. The general sentiment is said to be in favor of the project.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS ADVOCATE CIVIL WAR

HALLE, Germany, Oct. 14.—Civil war was the only means of establishing a proletarian state in Germany, was advocated at the German Socialists' convention by Herr Daumig, leader of the pro-Bolshevik wing of the Independent Socialists.

Daumig declared in favor of an alliance with Soviet Russia. Herr Crispian, leader of the conservative element, while endorsing a dictatorship of the proletariat, opposed terrorism and spoke against submission to Moscow.

Crispian asserted Germany must decide its own vital questions such as starting another revolution.

C. OF C. MEMBERSHIP BUTTONS RECEIVED

"Popularity will come to every man and woman who wear Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce button," said J. C. Metzgar, secretary, today, in announcing that the buttons had arrived and were ready for distribution.

"The button will be the symbol both of public spirit and of identification with an organization that is devoting its energies exclusively to the promotion of Santa Ana—an institution which is rendering service to home people, as well as to those who may be looking to Santa Ana as a place for future residence," Metzgar added.

A big list of prospective members has been compiled and these will be apportioned among the large number of teams to be organized for the intensive soliciting campaign to be conducted next week.

Letters preliminary to the personal solicitation campaign have been mailed out by Secretary J. C. Metzgar of the Chamber of Commerce.

Anyone not receiving copies of the letters and wishing to become a member will receive a cordial welcome at the office of the Chamber in the city hall. It was found impossible to compile a list that would provide the name of everyone who might want to assist in the work of boosting Santa Ana. Copies of the following letter have been mailed to prospective members:

"Dear Fellow Citizen:—You have doubtless been informed that this Chamber of Commerce is actively engaged in a membership campaign. Our earnest desire is to enroll every good citizen of this community who feels an interest in and will work for the advancement of the city of Santa Ana.

"Mr. John A. McFadden has been selected chairman of the Membership committee, because of his great interest in the work of the chamber and his ability to enthuse others with the 'pull-together' spirit so necessary in the work we undertake.

"Santa Ana is growing very fast. There is much important work to be done in taking care of its present and future needs.

"To keep pace with that growth and to perform efficient service, we must have greater facilities and greater revenue. We now have about 600 members and feel that we should have a much larger membership to carry out the plans we have under way for your benefit and that of every one in our community.

"May we not enroll you as one of us?"

AUTO DEALERS BACK COX IN WAR TO CURB SPEEDING

Peace Justice Tells Dealers
How He Administers
His Court
IS GIVEN "BIG HAND"

Robert Martland Gives Address on Laws Pertaining to Car Industry

The code adopted by Justice of the Peace John B. Cox in dealing with speeders and reckless drivers brought into his court, has the approval of the Orange County Automobile Trades Association. One hundred and twenty-five active automobile men of the county, members of the trades association, met last night at James' and voted unanimous endorsement of Justice Cox's administration of his court.

It was a lively session, "jazz" obtaining, both as to music and as to the spirit of the meeting. The session opened with a number of musical selections by the Del Signo orchestra, after Secretary Walter Biddick had decorated the heads of the men with crepe caps of various designs.

Robert M. Martland, secretary of the state association, and Justice Cox delivered addresses.

George R. Hamilton, president, and J. S. Busby, treasurer, of the Los Angeles association; Chas. C. Faber, special visiting delegate of the Los Angeles association, and John E. Spencer, secretary, were among the Los Angeles visitors present.

Hamilton and Spencer addressed the meeting on the state convention to be held in Los Angeles tomorrow and Saturday, giving particulars of the conditions under which cups and cash are to be awarded for best attendance.

Introduced by Paul Price, presiding, as a man responsible for a large amount of good advertising that had cost the county nothing, Justice Cox was given a "big hand" when he rose to make his address. His remarks were frequently punctuated by applause.

Glad to Meet Dealers
"I am very glad to meet you boys, but I doubt if you have said as much of me when some of you have met me in my official capacity in my court room," said Cox in opening his remarks. "I think the members of this association have backed me up in procedures in my court for the past ten years. I have tried to make Orange county's highways safe for automobilists."

"I have never allowed politics or ward heelers to influence cases brought into my court," Cox continued. "I have had letters from ministers who have endeavored to use their influence in securing the release of criminals. I have had men in high official capacity try to exert their influence in behalf of friends who have been brought before me."

"I am looked upon as a gruff, grizzly old man by those who do not know me. There are two men in

PROMOTIONS AT TWO BANKS ARE ANNOUNCED

W. B. Tedford Becomes Active Vice-President of F. and M. Savings

The officers and directors of the First National Bank and of the Farmers & Merchants Savings Bank today announced a number of promotions and adjustments in the two banks.

The increase in the business of the Farmers & Merchants Savings bank, the stock of which is owned exclusively by the stockholders of the First National Bank, has called for the addition of another active officer to that bank. Walter B. Tedford, long in the banking business in Santa Ana, and one of the best known citizens of the county, has been elected vice-president and director of the savings bank.

The promotion will take Tedford from the First National Bank, where he has been assistant cashier in charge of the note department, to a desk in the savings bank. An active vice-president is a new thing in the savings bank organization. The addition of Tedford to the savings bank without question will greatly strengthen that institution.

Adjustments Made
The departure of M. C. Wilde, who recently resigned from the First National in order to become a federal bank examiner and the promotion of Tedford to the vice-presidency of the savings bank, called for a number of promotions and adjustments in the personnel of the First National. The desk formerly occupied by Wilde is now occupied by A. E. Zaiser, assistant cashier, and Zaiser's desk is passed to F. M. Robinson, assistant cashier, who has held No. 1 window at the bank. No. 1 window goes to Harry L. Hanson, who has been elected an assistant cashier of the bank. This change means that Robinson will be engaged in general assistant cashier's work.

The vacancy in the note department has been filled by moving C. L. Cotant from the collection department to the note department. Cotant, too, is made an assistant cashier. Cotant's place in the collection department is taken by L. M. Forney, who moves to that department from a teller's window.

In making the changes, years of service and ability to handle the duties of the various assignments were taken into consideration.

PROSPECTIVE BRIDE BLOCKS CEREMONIAL

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Oct. 14.—Dan Cupid and Dame Kinship locked horns in Judge B. O. Bistline's court the other day, when a young pair took a marriage license and afterward told the clerk their parents were half sister and brother.

Officials of the court house assembled to decide if the thing could be done legally. They found no law against it. Because the officials were dubious, however, the bride took a decision. She refused to get married. The groom remonstrated. The bride persisted. And they didn't get married.

Man Who Bought Sunset Club Building Buys Residence for $10,000

A. W. Stahl, who recently came to Santa Ana from the East and bought what is known as the Sunset club building at 410-12 North Main street from Fred Rohrs, has purchased a home here.

He has bought Mrs. S. E. Cook's residence at 313 South Sycamore street, paying, it is said, $10,275. Roy Johnson, with C. M. McCain & Company, negotiated the deal.

Other recent deals closed by Johnson include the following: C. Hilgers to S. Cory, lately from Canada, residence at 1029 West Pine, $5250; O. O. DuRall to George Barnes, residence at 1225 West Fourth, $5800; M. Lurker, to O. O. DuRall, residence at 1029 West Second, $5650.

FORMER BUFFALO WOMAN BUYS S. A. ACREAGE

Charmed with the beauties of Santa Ana, on a visit here last winter, Miss June Wallace, formerly of Buffalo, has become the owner of 2 1/2 acres in the 1500 block on East Fourth street. The purchase was made from E. D. Caskey, through the agency of Carden, Leibig and Seemans. The consideration was more than $10,000.

It is understood that Miss Wallace contemplates building an attractive residence on one of the acre lots. Accompanied by an uncle and his wife, Miss Wallace motored to Santa Ana from Long Beach one day last winter. A drive over this section as guests of George B. Shattuck captivated the visitors. Her uncle is a prominent official of the company putting out the H. O. products and his home is in Buffalo.

Later Miss Wallace wrote Shattuck to look out for a good location for her and the purchase on East Fourth is the result. It is understood that Miss Wallace's uncle advised her that if she bought the two acres he would take half of the property off her hands later, and that he would build a residence at some time in the future.

ARIZONA TOWN SWEEP BY $250,000 BLAZE

BISBEE, Ariz., Oct. 14.—The town of Lowell, Ariz., Bisbee suburb is seeking to bring order out of the chaos caused by a disastrous fire which destroyed half of the town, sweeping through a dozen or more business places and causing a loss which Fire Chief Wilson estimated at $250,000.

The fire started in a smoke house of the Tovee Packing company and swept down the north side of Main street and up to the municipal market on the Naco Road. When it reached the Bisbee Lumber company, the flames formed the vortex of a veritable volcano the ferocity of which was increased by explosions of gasoline tanks.

Merchants threw their entire stock into the streets before the path of the fire and police were forced to use desperate means to check the vandals who ransacked the piles of merchandise in the half darkness. A number of arrests were made. There were no fatalities reported.

The Biggest Problem

Visalia Delta

New Jersey is said to be plowing under great crops of tomatoes because there is not enough to ship rather than not facilities to get them to market. There are millions of bushels of apples, peaches and pears rotting on the ground in American orchards for the same reason. Millions of bushels of potatoes and other root crops will not be dug this fall, because the farmers have no time to dig them, or because it does not seem worth while at the prices obtainable.

And yet there is not really any over-production. It is doubtful if there ever is. The American people could use every bushel of perishable fruit and vegetables produced, if the stuff could be got to them and sold at fair prices. And such prices, it is observed, would be just as favorable to the producers as to the consumers, if the proper connection were made.

It is the old story, merely a little more impressive this year than usual, because for a long time food has been so scarce and

$20,000 MAILED OUT BY WALNUT ASSOCIATION

First Payment Is Made On Deliveries Processed
Up to This Time

Directors of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers' association are feeling more encouraged over the walnut outlook this week than they felt a week ago when walnut prices were fixed at the meeting of the general association in Los Angeles. The reason for encouragement is that the trade generally over the country has begun ordering new crop walnuts.

A report received here from the central office in Los Angeles stated that there are more orders for walnuts this year's crop now than were received the first week last year after prices were fixed. The quantity ordered is not so great, but the orders are greater in number.

The hold-over crop is in eastern warehouses, and that hold-over is constantly being diminished. Eastern dealers are ordering in small quantities. That seems to be the general policy in buying of supplies of all kinds in the East. However, the orders, while small, come from far and wide, and show that there is a widespread demand for walnuts.

The Santa Ana Walnut association was mailing out checks today totaling about $20,000. These checks are to growers and are a first payment on all walnuts delivered and processed up to this time. The payment is eight cents on No. 1 softshells, six cents on No. 2 softshells, and nine cents on Diamond buds.

Walnuts are coming into the association packing houses slowly. Growers are seeing to it that their walnuts are well dried before they are offered at the packing house.

KANSANS PAY $13,000 FOR 2-ACRE PROPERTY

Arriving here last week by automobile from Clay Center, Kansas, Fred Miller and family decided to become permanent residents of Santa Ana. Miller has purchased a two-acre property at the corner of Seventh and Santa Ana streets. He bought the property of S. W. Miller, of Fullerton. The tenant now occupying the house on the property will vacate within the next thirty days. Miller paid $13,000 for the property. The transaction was negotiated by E. A. White.

Miller's family consists of himself, wife, two daughters and a son. Pending taking possession of their house, Miller and his family are living at the public auto camping park.

STEVE'S HOUSES ON WAY TO COMPLETION

Fred B. Stever, real estate agent, who is "doing his little bit," in building new residences in Santa Ana, reports that three houses he is now building—two in West Sixth street and one in West Nineteenth—are rapidly nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Stever reports recent sales as follows: Mrs. L. A. Buchanan to Mrs. J. R. Hague, three houses and lot, 413 E. Chestnut, $8500.

F. C. Stroh to Mrs. L. A. Buchanan, 75 feet front lot, 314 West Second, $6000. An attractive garage-dwelling is located on the rear of the lot.

J. R. Mayer to F. C. Stroh, two lots at the corner of Ross and Durant streets, $2700.

INSTALL OIL BURNERS IN BRITISH TRAINS

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The first oil-driven express on a British railway ran from London to Birmingham today. It formerly used 70 lb. of coal a mile, but since conversion it burns only about 30 lb. of oil a mile and does not emit smoke or cinders.

John has been blind since his last visit to Minneapolis a year ago. His health is still good, however, he maintains. He is said to be the oldest living Indian.

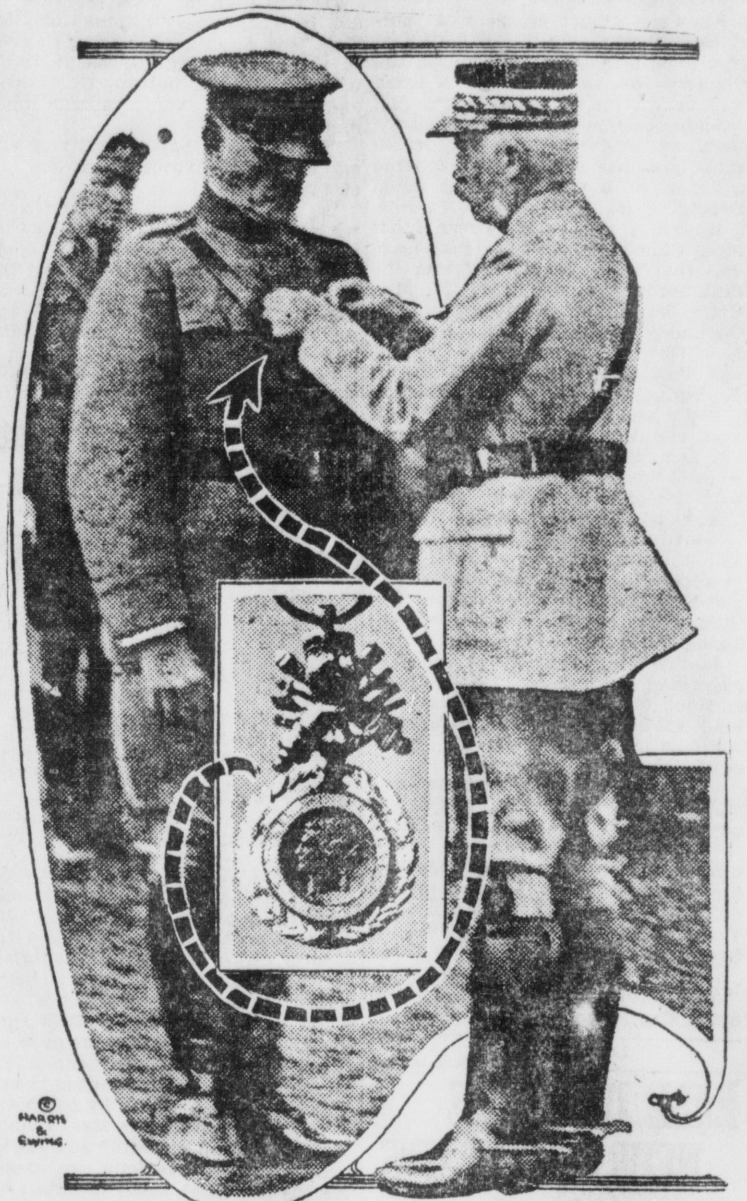

"I don't see any more, but I still like to travel," the old Indian said. With him he brought his blanket, upon which he sleeps, never having slept in a bed.

URGES CLOSE WATCH OVER YOUNG CHILDREN

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.—Close supervision over children during their early years to allow prompt application of corrective measures where physical defects exist was stressed as an imperative need by speakers at the annual convention of the Child Hygiene Congress, session here.

Dr. C. E. Edgerton, Carter of Los Angeles advocated a system of charting the health status of children. This allows defects and diseased conditions to be visualized, he explained, and affords a ready means of comparison for correction.

General Pershing is now the possessor of the highest military decoration of France—the Medaille Militaire. In the presence of allied attaches of Washington, General Pershing received the medal from General Marie Fayolle in recognition not only of his own service to France but of the valor and bravery of the American doughboy. The ceremony took place at Fort Meyer, Va.

LYRIC THEATER IS BOUGHT BY C. E. WALKER

Papers were in escrow, passing title to an East Fourth street business property that has been for a long time in possession of a pioneer Santa Ana family, or its relatives. The property is that occupied by the Lyric Theater at 218 East Fourth street.

C. E. Walker, proprietor of the Princess and Lyric theaters, bought the property from Frank M. and F. L. Stennett. The deal is being put through by Everett A. White. The consideration is not disclosed.

The lot has a frontage of twenty-five feet on Fourth street and is a part of the property owned for many years by Henry Neill, pioneer liveryman of Santa Ana. In the early days a livery stable was located on the corner. Old-timers recall the activity on the corner by reason of Neill's keenness for the purchase of fast livery stock and the fact that the stable was for a time the point of arrival and departure for stages to Los Angeles and San Diego.

The property passed from the hands of Neill to his wife. At the death of the latter a few years ago, the property came into possession of Frank Stennett, of Strathmore, Cal., and F. L. Stennett of Santa Ana, brothers of Mrs. Neill.

Walker has made the purchase as an investment in good business property and does not contemplate any changes in the building or in the present program of operation of the theater.

WORK TO BEGIN ON BIG GARAGE BUILDING AT SECOND AND MAIN, WORD

New Structure Is to Be of Reinforced Concrete,
Says Lot Purchaser

OWNER LAUDS LOCATION

Plans Laid for One or Two Additional Stories in Course of Time

A modern reinforced concrete garage building is to be started in the immediate future on the southwest corner of Main and Second streets as the result of the probable closing of preliminary negotiations today by A. L. Philbrick for the purchase of the corner.

He was scheduled to make the purchase from C. M. McCain, who bought the property several weeks ago from Mrs. Bessie McDonald.

It is understood that Philbrick will pay $25,000 for the corner, approximately the same figure involved when McCain bought it.

The lot is 100x125 feet in size, the 100 feet fronting on Main street.

Philbrick has been operating the Santa Ana Vulcanizing Works at 519 North Main street for the past two years. His business has developed, according to his statement, beyond the capacity of his present quarters, and he has decided to erect a building of his own planned especially for his lines of business—vulcanizing, tires and ignition.

"I will have the building up so quickly it will make some people's heads swim," declared Philbrick when asked as to the date he would probably occupy the structure he will put up when the deal is consummated.

Plans Modern Structure

"My plans will call for a line of construction a little different from that which has been in vogue here in garage buildings," Philbrick added. "The building will be modern in every particular and will be designed especially to afford greater convenience to patrons and to provide better accommodations and facilities for workmen."

"My hope is to make the structure three stories at some future date. Foundation walls will be constructed with this in view and as my business expands and time goes by I expect to add a story at a time until I have three stories."

"I consider the location one of the best in the city and feel that I have been fortunate in acquiring the property."

Tenants on the corner have been notified to vacate. T. G. Gowdy, who operates a vulcanizing business in the old First M. E. church building that stood on the corner facing on Main street for many years, and which is now located on the rear of the lot, already has purchased two lots on East Fourth street, at the corner of Grand avenue, upon which he will erect a building for his use.

Will Take Time

"It probably will be some time after Gowdy vacates before the new building will be ready for him. In the meantime he will continue his tire business at his residence, it is said."

The Union Oil station, on the corner, and operated by C. W. Metcalf, will be closed on the first of November. The building, it is understood, will be wrecked. The company has secured a lease on the corner, directly north, owned by the Cadillac Garage company. A station and auto parking stalls have been installed on the lot. Metcalf will have charge of the business, including the parking, on and after the first of the month.

At 7 1/2 cents per mile, 5 people can travel for less than bus, train or street car fare, not to say anything about the added conveniences and comfort in going and coming when and where others don't go. When taking your next day's outing, remember Copson rents cars without drivers.

TENANTS WIN IN LEASING BATTLE

J. W. Bristol and his wife are assured of remaining at their present location at 514 S. Flower street until December 1, as a result of a decision in their favor yesterday by Justice Cox as against B. L. Glazier and W. M. Huff.

It appeared from the evidence that Mr. and Mrs. Bristol had rented the house in question on September 25, 1919, from Thomas E. Chantry and wife, and their daughter, Mrs. Clark, since deceased.

Knowing that prospective purchasers were trying to get the Chantrys to sell, the Bristols went to the Chantrys on December 1. A lease was drawn up by Mrs. Clark and read to the Chantrys, and signed for them by Mrs. Clark, as agent, in their presence. The lease covered a period of a year, and was dated December 1.

It would appear, however, that Mrs. Chantry's idea of the lease was that it meant a year from the first occupancy, September 25. Mrs. Clark having since died, the only testimony available was that of Mrs. Chantry, that of the Bristols, and that of an employee, E. E. McKinney.

Rent had been paid regularly, it was shown. About a month ago Mr. and Mrs. Chantry, believing the lease would expire on September 25, sold the place to Glazier and Huff. They served notice on the Bristols to move out. Bristol maintained he had a lease until December 1, and proceeded to deposit payment in the bank for two months' rent to come. Glazier and Huff brought suit, alleging unlawful detainer.

Justice Cox ruled that as the lease had been written in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Chantry and read to all concerned, the Bristols were entitled to occupy the house until December 1.

Attorney Charles D. Swanner represented the defendants, and Attorney John A. Harvey the plaintiffs.

CHECK AND LETTER BOOST BOY SCOUTS

A check and boost for the Boy Scouts were received this week by William McKay, scoutmaster for the Elks' troop of Boy Scouts. They came from H. E. Fisher of 221 Cypress street. The letter accompanying the check reads as follows:

"While practically a visitor in your city I am pleased to note the effort being made by your public spirited citizens in the interest of the Boy Scouts organization, and herewith enclose my check as an encouragement to that end.

"It has been my good pleasure to aid in such organizations in the East, and no citizen desiring to give to this community the social uplift it deserves can fail to 'Git Bizzy' and boost this very commendable movement.

"I was born a boy some fifty years ago and never expect to get boy out of my system.

"I might tell you that last year when the entire police force in Cincinnati, Ohio, struck for higher wages and left its posts of duty, the Boy Scouts in that city immediately took up the duties of the police and for three weeks patrolled that city and did it well."

S. A. Clark found Indiana looking good, and he enjoyed visiting with his old friends, but he is back in Santa Ana more firmly convinced than ever that for him, Santa Ana is the brightest spot on earth. Clark attended the G. A. R. gathering in Indianapolis.

"I was at Terre Haute, Sullivan, Greenfield and other places," said Clark. "That country looks as well as I ever saw it, but somehow it is not up to California. I couldn't get used to the bad roads. When I lived there I didn't notice the condition of the roads, but now after our paved roads out here, why, they seem away behind the times."

MAY HAVE CHEESE FACTORY
POMONA, Oct. 14.—Pomona may soon be the center for one of the greatest goat milk industries in the country, with a factory established for the making of goat milk cheese, according to Mrs. L. M. Clency, secretary of the Citrus Belt Milk Goat Association and the breeder of fancy Toggenberg stock on her ranch. Pomona is a center of the goat breeding industry has grown by leaps and bounds, according to Mrs. Clency, and the making of butter and cheese from goat milk has long ago passed the experimental stage in this community, she said. Cheese made from the milk of the goat is the finest and most delicately flavored in the world, said the local goat breeder.

URGE STREET EXTENSION
UPLAND, Oct. 14.—A committee of the Upland Chamber of Commerce, headed by G. A. Hanson, has asked the city council to extend the main business street of the city, Second avenue, from Eleventh street to Twelfth. Twelfth street is the foothill boulevard and none of the north and south avenues from Euclid to Campus go beyond Eleventh. City Engineer F. G. Frohde has instructed to draw up a description of the property it would be necessary for the city to purchase and to make a tentative map of the district to be assessed.

SENTENCED AS VAGRANT
A man giving the name of Joe McGovern, alleged to be a professional hobo, was given fifteen days in the county jail by Justice Cox on a charge of vagrancy. McGovern was arrested when he was found attempting to "beat" the railroad fare increase by riding the beams.

PAIR ONCE HELD IN MURDER CASE FREED
Andreas Luna and Rafino Morena, held on a charge of disturbing the peace, and who were under suspicion of having had something to do with the murder of Ignacio Guerrero of Westminster on September 12, were freed following their preliminary examination before Justice Cox. Deputy District Attorney W. F. Menon said there was insufficient evidence to hold them.

"Whose peace did these two men disturb?" demanded the court. Someone ventured the information that they had disturbed the peace of the other Mexicans.

"Case dismissed," said Justice Cox. "It is impossible for one Mexican to disturb the peace of another Mexican. It can't be done."

ANAHEIM G. O. P. RALLY ATTRACTS

A big delegation of Santa Ana Republicans will attend the Republican rally at Anaheim Saturday night.

The delegation will drive to the Mother Colony in decorated automobiles and will carry a band with it. The Anaheim Republican club is planning to have a big demonstration of enthusiasm. First there will be a torchlight parade. There will be at least two bands in the parade, and hundreds will join in marching to patriotic marching tunes. Second, there will be an open-air speaking.

It is expected that Judge Rex Goodcell of San Bernardino will be present to deliver an address. Judge Goodcell campaigned in the East for Hiram Johnson, and the national Republican speakers' committee was so well impressed with his oratorical and campaigning ability that it has arranged to have him go East to campaign for Harding and Coolidge in Indiana and Illinois. Judge Goodcell is awaiting definite instructions as to when he should start. These instructions may arrive at any hour and he may have to leave before Saturday night. If he can put off his start East until after Saturday night he will be at Anaheim.

One of the Saturday night speakers will be Judge Phil D. Swings, of El Centro. Republican nominees for congressmen, Swing has made two addresses in Santa Ana, and he is considered as one of the clearest-cut talkers among the men campaigning in California today. Swing will discuss campaign issues in a straightforward manner. He speaks forcefully and clearly.

The committee in charge of arrangements for Santa Ana's participation in the Anaheim rally announced that all of those who want to go to Anaheim are expected to meet in front of the Santa Ana city hall not later than 6:45 o'clock Saturday evening. Automobiles not filled with passengers for the big rally will be filed at the starting point. Those with automobiles are requested to come somewhat early, so that they can get banners to put on their automobiles. J. W. Flagg of the banners committee said today that the banners had been left with City Marshal Sam Jernigan. Each auto owner should place a flag on his machine, says Flagg.

AUTO DEALERS BACK COX IN SPEED WAR

John B. Cox. John B. Cox, as a citizen can go with you boys and have as good a time as any of you. John B. Cox, as justice of the peace, administers what he believes to be justice—the same brand of justice to all, whether the accused be poor and friendless or whether possessed of all kinds of wealth and friends. I have not been severe, except with those who have been severe themselves.

"There are some who say that 'the old man' ought to be shot. Such sentiment does not worry me in the least. I am placed in my position to administer justice and that is what I try to do, no matter what may be the character of the man brought before me.

Education Needed
"There is something needed beside the courts to remedy the evil of speeding and reckless driving, for the courts can't do it all. That something is that the drivers must be educated to the rules of automobile manipulation. The automobilists should do their part. You must educate them. The dealers and auto tradesmen can perform an invaluable service by directing the attention of drivers to the law and cautioning them.

"We must take away selfishness, we must eliminate hurry. Autoists must learn to take and give. We can't legislate caution, we can't legislate brains into the heads of the drivers—we can only educate them.

"Five people were killed in Los Angeles the other day. The driver drove his car on the tracks in front of a steam train. He had ample warning. He passed other cars that had halted at the crossing to permit the train to pass. He was either in a hurry or he was a reckless driver. What can we do with such people? Would punishment by imprisonment or a fine have any effect? Would punishment have had any effect on this man who drove his machine in front of the onrushing train had he been successful in beating the train to the crossing? He probably would have repeated the performance at the first opportunity."

Cox made reference to a number of cases in which he had imposed jail sentences upon men who stood high in their communities and in which attempts were made to influence the court.

Atkinson Responds
Robert Atkinson, of the Reid Motor Company, responded to Cox, approving and supporting him in his court record. He suggested that dealers adopt the policy of placing a copy of the state vehicle law in the hands of every one to whom a car is sold, and that attention be directed to the essential points of the law.

Martland, in his enthusiastic and clear-cut way, touched on many points relative to state laws and the automobile industry. He warned every member to be keenly alert to and watchful of new legislation proposed in the state legislature. He recounted instances of the last session where innocent-appearing bills were presented and which would have had serious effect on the auto industry of the state had they been passed. He touched at length upon the tow-car license situation and advised dealers that they should have a non-dealers' license plate on every car used in tow service where charge is made for the service. Such a license is not necessary on a car used exclusively for free service to patrons, he pointed out.

The evening was concluded with the serving of light refreshments.

Carlsbad-By-The-Sea

—CARLSBAD has the most equable climate in the world. This we realize is a pretty strong statement, but it is based on facts and official records.

Winters are Like Summers

—By reason of this even climate all sorts of tender fruits and vegetable produce during all winter months, as well as summer, bringing very fine profits to the ranches, as no other district competes with us during our marketing season.

—Think of having ripe peaches for the Christmas market! Berries, peas, string beans, summer squash, green chili and bell peppers, etc.! One rancher sold $1200 worth of peppers grown on ONE ACRE! Another sold $7000 worth of green peas off eight acres! Another sold $1000 worth of string beans off two acres! The names of these ranchers may be had at this office.

—Go out with us any day and investigate this "Wonderland."

ANAHEIM WANTS LINE THROUGH TO PACIFIC G. OF C. MEETING AT GARDEN GROVE

ANAHEIM, Oct. 14.—Anaheim will officially favor the extension of the Pacific Electric line from Corona down the Santa Ana canyon to the Pacific ocean on condition that the line touches Anaheim enroute, it was indicated at the city trustees' meeting.

The matter was brought up by a communication from the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, asking Anaheim's support in getting a P. E. extension from Corona to Stern and Marlboro, in order to afford a shorter outlet from the Riverside country to the ocean than is provided by way of the present route through Los Angeles. The Anaheim trustees expressed themselves favorable to the P. E. extension if the line should come through Anaheim, inasmuch as Anaheim now has no P. E. service direct to the ocean.

FIGHT QUESTION PUZZLE TO BREA

BREA, Oct. 14.—Efforts are being made to obviate the necessity of holding a referendum election in Brea on the prize fight proposition. Both factions in the case are holding conferences with the city council and it is expected some plan may be evolved which will not necessitate a vote on the matter.

Opponents of the present state of affairs are objecting to what they call commercialized boxing. Some compromise is desired outside of a referendum vote in order to prevent the forming of definite and hostile factions over the matter in the town. Friendly conferences of leading citizens with the city council are expected to bring about the desired result although as yet no definite compromise has been effected.

Governor Cox and Senator Harding are expected to appear at a unique social evening at the Brea school next Thursday evening. A. Mr. J. A. Knapp, Brea mayor, is expected to bring about the desired result although as yet no definite compromise has been effected.

ANAHEIM C. C. SEEKS MAIN FLOOR QUARTERS

ANAHEIM, Oct. 14.—The matter of obtaining suitable ground floor quarters for the Anaheim C. C. of C. was taken up at the meeting of this body on the fourth floor of Hotel Valencia. Malcomb A. Fraser, secretary, stated that the present lease will expire in January and the present quarters are unsuitable anyway because it is almost impossible to get everyone up the fourth floor because the elevator will carry but five at a time and besides some people don't understand how to handle an automobile club, he said. The automobile club of Southern California in order that motorists coming through Anaheim who stop at the automobile club office for information, be enabled to see the exhibits of the C. C. of C. The purpose of the C. C. of C. is to divulge information of Anaheim to outsiders, which can best be done in conjunction with the automobile club, he said. The automobile club, he said, is willing to stand its share of the expense and the remainder of the quarters not used by the club and the C. C. of C. should be divided into office rooms and sub-rented. The automobile club is also ready to stand its share of the expense in partitioning.

The committee in charge of selecting a site was instructed by a unanimous vote to select quarters on Los Angeles street that the headquarters and the site highway and thus effective in disseminating information. This motion was made by William Sebastian.

SUSPECT BLACK HAND PLOT AGAINST VESSEL

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 14.—Is an armed Black Hand force besieging the Italian steamer Milazzo, now in Hampton Roads?

Her skipper says a motor boat manned by fifteen members of the Black Hand have made two attempts to take his ship. There are sixty odd men in the crew of the Milazzo and why they should fear fifteen men in a motor boat is a mystery.

The Milazzo's skipper says that on the first visit the Black Handers boarded his ship and fired pistols. His crew sought shelter. The captain had the wireless operator send out this message:

"Italian steamer Milazzo is being attacked by Black Hand crew in motor boat. We ask immediate assistance."

Sharpshooters from the Norfolk police force went to the assistance of the Milazzo. The Black Handers had flown. The police returned to Norfolk and had forgotten the Milazzo when this second message came:

"Italian steamer Milazzo is again being attacked by Black Hand. Men are armed and we fear they may shoot. We want immediate assistance."

The police again went to the steamer. Again the men had flown. Now the police are sore, and say the so-called Black Handers are probably nothing more than a boatload of men seeking whiskey. The Milazzo is said to have a quantity of good things to drink on board.

PARENTS LIVE APART, BUT ACROSS STREET

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Mrs. William Rhodes Jr., moving picture actress of Hastings-on-Hudson, and her husband who, under a decision of Supreme Court Justice Tompkins of New York, divide the time of their six-year-old son, William, do not have to go far to exchange possession of the youngster.

It was learned that, while the parents live apart without being legally separated, they dwell across the street from one another. This probably accounts for the fact that, a brother claimed, she had a hard job making the boy stay with his father, as the court directed, from sundown each Saturday to sundown the next day.
